NEW INSTITUTE FOR HEBREW CHILDREN.

Structure for Education of Youth to Be Erected at Ninth and Carr Streets.

WILL COST AT LEAST $25,000.

United Jewish Educational and Charitable Association Will Direct It-Manual Training Will Be a Feature.

The Hebrew children of that quarter of the city generally known as Little Jerusalem are to have an educational institute built for their benefit at the corner of Ninth and Carr streets. The object of the institute is to educate them to strive for higher ideals. The institution will be essentially for educational work along the lines hald down in the public schools, but, in addition, the pupils will receive manual training and lessons in cooking.

There will also be social features connected with the new school, and to foster the spirit of brotherly love the pupils will have for their convenience reading-rooms, a lecture hall, gamerooms, gymnasium and baths.

The institute will be directed by the Uniter the Carlotter of the light and invested by the Uniter Stripe of the Carlotter of the Carlotte lecture hall, gamerooms, gymnasium and baths.

The institute will be directed by the United Jewish Educational and Charitable Association. A permit to commence work on the building was procured yesterday, and ground will be broken about January I. The building is to be completed by July I and will cost between £5,000 and £35,000. Elias Michael, president of the association, said last night that no expense would be sparred to make the new school inviting to young and old persons alike.

The reading-rooms will be open to the pupils of the school at all times, and they are expected to fill a long-felt want in that locality. The lecture hall will, of course, be used only for lectures and entertainments. The association proposes to make a feature of lectures and entertainments in connection with the school work in the winter. A day nursery will be established at the school for the benefit of mothers who have to work in the day and are unable to care for their children at the same time.

BEWILDERING POLITENESS.

Mrs. Gallagher Overpowered by a Parkers Gallant Young Footpad.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Dec. 12—Mrs. Anna Gallagher never knew highwaymen could be polite until last evening. She had thought the stories of gentlemantly robbers as she read them in the newspapers, were fabrications. She thinks differently now. Mrs. Gallagher met the most polite young footpad she ever heard of while pasing Erie street and Oak Park avenue last night.

"Good evening, Madame," said the footpad, bowing and lifting his hat. Thinking he was an acquaintance, Mrs. Gallagher returned the salutation.

"Pardon me," he continued, "but that hand bag seems rather heavy. If you don't mind, I'll relieve you of it."

At the same time he seized the bag containing a gold watch, 318 in money and several trinkets. The woman tried to retain it, but the thief was too strong for her.

"Permit me to thank you and advise you to continue on your way home," is the way he saluted his victim as he disappeared.

Mrs. Gallagher reported the robbery to the police, but could not give a description of the robber beyond that he was well dressed.

JEWELER MATHER CONVICTED.

He Obtained Jewelry Worth Fifty Thousand Dollars and Pawned It.

New York, Dec. 12.—Charles E. Mather, a jewelry commission agent, was found guilty of grand larceny in the first legece to-day. Mather was brought to this city from Seattle on November 19, on a requisition. The charges against him were that he obtained jewelry valued at about $50,000 on memorandum and pawned it instead of selling it.

Charleston, S. C., Dec. 12.—The fourth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities met here to-day in the Auditorium. The Mayors were welcomed in addresses by Governor M. B. McSweeney of this State and Mayor Smythe of Charleston, and the response was made by the president of the league, Mayor Henry V. Johnson of Denver.

The morning session was opened by the annual address of President Johnson. The first topic for discussion was "What Poiley is Best to Use in Enforcing the Law Pertaining to Saloons?" on which subject Mayor Campbell of Columbus, Ga., read an

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Dec. 12—If the wishes of high-ranking officers in the Philippines are observed, many important changes will occur at the end of the present dry season. Several of the general officers are urging that they be ordered home, and it is expected that when the volunteers are returned they will accompany them.

Major General MacArthur, Governor General, was not giving entire satisfaction a month ago, and the War Department sent him a dispatch criticising his conduct of military operations. As a result of this instruction and the mobilization of American troops, engagements have not been as frequent as during the summer, when small detachments were scattered about the island and the casualty lists have consequently been smaller.

It is the belief of well-informed officers that General MacArthur and General A. E. Bates will return to the United States within a few months, and Major General Chaffee, now in command at Pekin, will be ordered to Manhia as General MacArthur's successor. and that they are willing to wait and win. They deny all responsibility of the order for any rough work done toward how men. Quite a number of nonunion men who had been brought here by the Santa Fe trains were induced to leave town over other roads.

within a tew months, and Major General Chaffee, now in command at Pekin, will be ordered to Manila as General MacArthur's successor.

The withdrawal of general officers from the Philippines will cause vacancies which must be filled, and has caused the President to make a decision that chiefs of staff bureaus, with military academy education and experience in the field, must be made available for duty in command of troops in the field. Paymaster General Bates under this decision is the only head of a staff department cligible for assignment to field duty.

Officers who are expected to return home with the volunteers are Brigadier Generals Grant and Functon. Brigadier Generals Kobbe and Bell may also return. It is understood that numerous staff changes in the Philippines may occur.

Will Consider the Existing Strike of Operators of Their System.

SITUATION IS LITTLE CHANGED.

Railroad Officials Say the Strike Is Practically Over, Operators Claim They Are Sure to Win -Trouble at Midlothian, Topeka, Kas., Dec. 12.-J. A. Newman, chalrman of the Santa Fe Grievance Committee, arrived here to-day to confer with the striking operators. Mr. Newman is very sanguine about the ultimate result of the strike:

"I have just received a report from the Chicago division," said Mr. Newman, "stating that we have had numerous accessions to our ranks, and that the boys there are jubilant over the good condition of things.
"Repeated measures from training. are jubilant over the good condition of things.

"Repeated messages from trainmen on the Chicago division assure me that most of the operators are out. Conductors say they have great difficulty in running their trains, some of which are late."

In the Topeka depot office three men and one woman are at work. In the general office here, three new men are working.

W. L. Sheldon, beturer of the Ethical Society, spoke last night at the Young Men's Rebrew Association Home, No. 255 Locust Street, on "Books and Good Reading." The lecture was delivered in the gymnusium, which was filled with an audience that taxed its scating capacity. Besides the address by Mr. Sheldon, an unusually good literary and music programme was given. By special request Miss Florence Messing recited the court scene from "The Merchant of Venice." This oration was given by Miss Messing at the High School last week, and first prize was awarded to her. Mrs. Max Kauffmann rendered a vocal solo. Others on the programme were L. L. Schoen, violinist: Mr. L. T. Steinberg, in vocal solos, and Miss Ray Epstein, who recited in a way that won her much praise. When the programme was finished it was announced by Chairman Rosenthal that prizes of books would be given for the two best lists of five well-known books. Mr. Sheldon acced as judge of the lists handed in and selected two containing the names of standard works of literature. The prizes were awarded to Rose Pfeiffer and Leuis Mayer. Young Clerk of New York House Accused of Absconding With Eighteen Thousand Dollars.

BOUGHT PICTURES AND BOOKS.

Paintings Levied Upon at His Home Are Valued at $3,000-Owned Many Rare Books-

New York Dec. 12.—Allerton Merritt, a son of William H. Merritt, who lives at No. 42 West End avenue, was for several years employed as a bookkeeper at a sailawken Wharf Company at No. 25 Cort-ing abscended with 28,000 of its funds. The young man was fend of rare books and paintings.

Upon an affidavit of Michael F. Burns, the president of the company, charging that the young man had disappeared with the intent of defraoding his creditors. Judge Blanchard of the Supreme Court to-day issued an attachment against his property. It was at once placed in the hands of the Sheriff and a levy made upon paintings valued at $1,000 and many valuable books.

Young Merritt was in the employ of the company between August, 1898, and last August. In his capacity as bookkeeper during that period he collected from persons indebted to the company $5,000. He paid to the company $5,000 fthese collections, leaving a balance of $18,000 still due. He left the office of the company on August 6 hast, and has not been there since.

Against Democrats.

Contests of election were filed in the Circuit Court of St. Louis by Hugo Muench and Judge James E. Withrow yesterday against Judges Warwick Hough, Walter E. Boughas and O'Neil Ryan, their successful opponents in the election heid in St. Louis on November 6. Each contestant files his suit against all three of the successful Democratic candidates.

The grounds of the contestant files his suit against all three of the successful Democratic candidates.

The grounds of the contests are practically the same as those of the other defeated Republican candidates, who fired their suits three weeks ago. The contestants aver that votes intended for the contesters; that legal and regular votes intended for the contesters; that legal and regular votes intended for the contesters; that legal and regular votes were rejected and excluded from the returns; that legal and regular votes were noistracted and destroyed and others put in their places and counted for the contesters; that there was fraud in the registration, especially in the Twelfth District, by means of which traul at least 2,99 filegal votes were secured for the contesters; that Republican challengers were excluded from the polling places; and finally, that intimidation, violence and other means of fraud were tracticed. Judge Klein has filed no contest and has said that he will not do so.

A Seething Mass of Humanity

AND PIANOS

A general meeting of the members of the Young Men's Hebrew Association will be held next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the association home. No. 273 Locust street, when plans and specifications for the proposed new home of the association will be submitted by the Board of Directors. It is expected that decisive action toward the inauguration of active operations will be taken at this meeting.

The question of a new Y. M. H. A. home has been agitated among the members since the beginning of the present year. The lease the association holds on the present quarters is about to expire, and many suggestions for a new home have been made. At the meeting next Sunday nominations will be made for the annual election of officers and the Board of Directors. The election will take place in January.

Home Treatment

Antioch, Miss., May 3, 1900.

I write this to try to explain my case and also to thank you for the great benefit I have derived from the use of your Wine of Cardui. I am 29 years old and have been married 12 years and have six children. I was taken last June with something like smothering spells. My flesh felt dead. I had heart palpitation; seemed like my lungs were full of needles. I had a burning sensation right under my left breast; was short of breath. I could not hold still at all. I had six doctors but none of them did me any good. The last one said my womb was bent backwards. It straightened it and then it came down. I had what is called falling of the womb. The doctor gave me a supporter and a pessary. I had no stomach to eat and was so weak that I could hardly walk across the room. I have taken six bottles of Wine of Cardui and it has helped me. My monthly sickness stopped on me and Wine of Cardui corrected that so that my periods are regular now and I feel better than I have in nine months. I can do all my housework and I go to see my neighbors on foot.

Mrs. Lizzle MORGAN.

Wine of Cardui in curing Mrs. Morgan proved itself worthy of its reputation as the "leading female remedy made". Mrs. Morgan was suffering agonies continually, with six doctors around her. But Wine of Cardui proved to be the remedy she needed. There are thousands of women to-day who need

WINE OF CARDUI

who would be cured of every pain as easily as Mrs. Morgan was. It will cure YOU the same as it cured her. Do you know that you can purchase a bottle of Wine of Cardui at the nearest drug store for $1.00, and, by treating yourself in the privacy of your own home, get relief from all those painful diseases to which women are subject? Is not that preferable to the dreaded examination, which is inseparable from the "doctoring" of a local practician? At least try Wine of Cardui. We believe it will cure you at home. In cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department", The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tean.
